

I hate COVID
A poem by: Samuel Tyler

Don't debate it,
I just hate it.
COVID is the worst,
it is definitely not first.
Most of the time I have to sit on my butt,
and I think "what!"
I don't like wearing a mask,
because for me that is a big task.
I have to sit in front of a computer screen all day,
and I think the opposite of yay.
Inside I feel sad,
people are getting sick and that's bad.
COVID is so insincere,
I wish it would just disappear.
But if we all wear masks, and wash our hands,
COVID will get out of this land.
